Of Light and Life – A Solo Exhibition by Michael Dumas

Date and Time: Tuesday, September 2 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 176 Bobcaygeon Road, Minden

Join us for Of Light and Life, a new exhibit by world renowned artist Michael Dumas. The exhibit will be on display at the Agnes Jameison Gallery from July 17 to September 13, 2025. The opening reception will be held on Saturday, July 19 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

“While the natural world has exerted its influence on my artwork since childhood the essential foundation for my work is direct observation of the world around me.

My exhibit, featuring several new pieces, provides a glimpse into the processes involved, from observational sketches and comprehensive preliminary drawings that may or may not lead anywhere beyond the motivating interest that inspired them. Overlaying this procedure is the matter of materials, the choice of medium, the support it will be applied to, and a sense of just what combinations are most sympathetic to the envisioned image. So goes an endless thread running through the work, joining observation, subject matter, emotional response, and the physicality of mediums.” M.D

The Artist:

Michael Dumas was born and raised in the small town of Whitney, Ontario, near Algonquin Park. Exposure and familiarity with the wilderness and its creatures are reflected in his art. Michael worked for a time as a ranger in Algonquin and has continued his connection to the Park by accompanying research teams on projects such as the winter bear den census. Michael's subject matter also includes rural themes and people; the common denominator within all his art being an intimate connection based on personal experience.

Michael's work has been exhibited both nationally and internationally. His art has been featured on Canadian postage stamps and commemorative coins produced by the Royal Canadian Mint. The Artists for Conservation selected Michael as the 2023 recipient of the Simon Combes Conservation Award. In 2024 Michael was also awarded the AFC Seerey-Lester Award of Excellence for his painting 'After the Storm', depicting a Canada Lynx in an environment affected by climate change.

The Agnes Jamieson Gallery is a public gallery with year-round visual exhibitions of local and regional art. The Gallery is part of the Minden Hills Cultural Centre which also includes the Heritage Village & Nature Place Interpretive Centre. The Gallery is fully accessible and is open Tuesday – Saturday from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. Admission is by donation.

Haycock: One Family's Canvas of Canada – Group Exhibition with Maurice H. Haycock, Kathy M. Haycock, Karole Haycock Pittman, Erika Pittman

Date and Time: Thursday, September 18 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 176 Bobcaygeon Road, Minden

Haycock: One Family's Canvas of Canada, tells the story of how a chance meeting in 1927 in Canada's Arctic led to nearly 100 years of painting the Canadian landscape from the vantage point of one family of painters. Maurice Haycock was on a Geological Survey assignment when he met A.Y. Jackson on a painting trip. Their friendship changed his life and consequently shaped the future lives of his two daughters and his granddaughter.

This special family exhibit contains many works from private collections not publicly displayed before. It is a rich visual narrative of the changing Canadian landscape from the 1940's to the present, of a family truly shaped by Canada's geography, and of how a powerful sense of place and emotion can be expressed in the personal brushwork, palette and style of each of the artists.

The Artists:

Maurice H. Haycock was a well-known Canadian artist and an important figure in artistically interpreting the Canadian Arctic and its history. It is estimated he travelled more than 500,000 km throughout northern Canada by sea, air, tracked vehicle, canoe, umiak, dog team and on foot personally exploring remote lands and painting what he saw.

Kathy M. Haycock's major creative influence comes from her father, and A.Y. Jackson. After years as a fiber artist and tapestry weaver, Kathy was introduced to oil paints by her sister Karole and instantly fell in love with them. She follows her spirit on adventurous painting trips to natural landscapes across Canada and beyond.

The Agnes Jamieson Gallery is a public gallery with year-round visual exhibitions of local and regional art. The Gallery is part of the Minden Hills Cultural Centre which also includes the Heritage Village & Nature Place I nterpretive Centre. The Gallery is fully accessible and is open Tuesday – Saturday from 10 am – 4 pm. Admission is by donation.

Haycock: Opening Reception of Haycock: One Family's Canvas of Canada, a Group Exhibition with Maurice H. Haycock, Kathy M. Haycock, Karole Haycock Pittman, Erika Pittman

Date and Time: Saturday, September 20 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Address: 176 Bobcaygeon Road, Minden

Haycock: One Family's Canvas of Canada, tells the story of how a chance meeting in 1927 in Canada's Arctic led to nearly 100 years of painting the Canadian landscape from the vantage point of one family of painters. Maurice Haycock was on a Geological Survey assignment when he met A.Y. Jackson on a painting trip. Their friendship changed his life and consequently shaped the future lives of his two daughters and his granddaughter.

This special family exhibit contains many works from private collections not publicly displayed before. It is a rich visual narrative of the changing Canadian landscape from the 1940's to the present, of a family truly shaped by Canada's geography, and of how a powerful sense of place and emotion can be expressed in the personal brushwork, palette and style of each of the artists.

Join us for the opening reception on Saturday, September 20. Refreshments will be served. All are welcome. Admission is by donation.

The Artists:

Maurice H. Haycock was a well-known Canadian artist and an important figure in artistically interpreting the Canadian Arctic and its history. It is estimated he travelled more than 500,000 km throughout northern Canada by sea, air, tracked vehicle, canoe, umiak, dog team and on foot personally exploring remote lands and painting what he saw.

Kathy M. Haycock's major creative influence comes from her father, and A.Y. Jackson. After years as a fiber artist and tapestry weaver, Kathy was introduced to oil paints by her sister Karole and instantly fell in love with them. She follows her spirit on adventurous painting trips to natural landscapes across Canada and beyond.

The Agnes Jamieson Gallery is a public gallery with year-round visual exhibitions of local and regional art. The Gallery is part of the Minden Hills Cultural Centre which also includes the Heritage Village & Nature Place Interpretive Centre. The Gallery is fully accessible and is open Tuesday – Saturday from 10 am – 4 pm. Admission is by donation.

Date and Time: Thursday, September 25 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Address: 176 Bobcaygeon Road, Minden

Join us for a special screening of Angry Inuk (2016) at the Minden Hills Cultural Centre on Thursday, September 25, 2025 at 1:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Angry Inuk (2016), directed by Inuk filmmaker Alethea Arnaquq-Baril, challenges widespread misconceptions about the Inuit seal hunt and critiques the impact of international anti-sealing campaigns on Inuit communities. It highlights how these campaigns have adversely affected the economic and cultural sustainability of Inuit people, despite exemptions for Indigenous hunters in legislation like the European Union's ban on seal products. The film features Inuit voices, including lawyer and activist Aaju Peter—who spoke at the “Telling Our Stories” Speaker Series in November 2024—highlighting the importance of seal hunting for survival. It also follows Inuit youth using social media and international platforms to challenge stereotypes. Angry Inuk has won multiple awards, including the Audience Award at Hot Docs 2016.

Admission is free, and all ages are welcome. No pre-registration is required. The documentary is provided courtesy of the National Film Board (NFB).

Haycock: One Family's Canvas of Canada – Group Exhibition with Maurice H. Haycock, Kathy M. Haycock, Karole Haycock Pittman, Erika Pittman

Date and Time: Tuesday, September 30 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 176 Bobcaygeon Road, Minden

Haycock: One Family's Canvas of Canada, tells the story of how a chance meeting in 1927 in Canada's Arctic led to nearly 100 years of painting the Canadian landscape from the vantage point of one family of painters. Maurice Haycock was on a Geological Survey assignment when he met A.Y. Jackson on a painting trip. Their friendship changed his life and consequently shaped the future lives of his two daughters and his granddaughter.

This special family exhibit contains many works from private collections not publicly displayed before. It is a rich visual narrative of the changing Canadian landscape from the 1940's to the present, of a family truly shaped by Canada's geography, and of how a powerful sense of place and emotion can be expressed in the personal brushwork, palette and style of each of the artists.

The Artists:

Maurice H. Haycock was a well-known Canadian artist and an important figure in artistically interpreting the Canadian Arctic and its history. It is estimated he travelled more than 500,000 km throughout northern Canada b y sea, air, tracked vehicle, canoe, umiaq, dog team and on foot personally exploring remote lands and painting what he saw.

Kathy M. Haycock's major creative influence comes from her father, and A.Y. Jackson. After years as a fiber artist and tapestry weaver, Kathy was introduced to oil paints by her sister Karole and instantly fell in love with them. She follows her spirit on adventurous painting trips to natural landscapes across Canada and beyond.

The Agnes Jamieson Gallery is a public gallery with year- round visual exhibitions of local and regional art. The Gallery is part of the Minden Hills Cultural Centre which also includes the Heritage Village & Nature Place Interpretive Centre. The Gallery is fully accessible and is open Tuesday – Saturday from 10 am – 4 pm. Admission is by donation.
